SECTION 5: NOTICE OF WITHHOLDING OF INCOME TAX ON WITHDRAWALS OR DISTRIBUTIONS

Federal tax law requires Western & Southern Life to withhold federal income tax at a rate of 10% from the taxable portion of any distribution or withdrawal, unless you elect NOT to have withholding apply.

Certain states also may require income tax withholding from the taxable portion of your distribution. In most cases, your federal withholding election would also apply to any state withholding election, although the rate of tax may vary among states. Note that Western & Southern Life will perform mandatory withholding if required by state law.

Your election will remain in effect until you file a new election and you may make or revoke an election as often as you wish. Any completed election or revocation will take effect within 30 days of the date Western & Southern Life receives it.

If you elect NOT to have taxes withheld from a distribution or withdrawal or if the amount of federal income tax withheld is insufficient, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. For this purpose, you may wish to consult with your tax advisor. Federal law also requires that you provide Western & Southern Life with your correct tax identification number (TIN) if you elect NOT to have taxes withheld from your distribution or withdrawal. (For most taxpayers, their TIN is their Social Security number.) If you fail to provide your TIN, Western & Southern Life is required to withhold any taxable payment to you.

I elect NOT to have taxes withheld.

I elect to have federal taxes withheld at the 10% rate, and state taxes, if applicable.

SECTION 7: TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE PROGRAM

The following terms and conditions apply to this annuity contract. Please read them carefully. If you fail to meet these terms and conditions at any time, you may incur adverse tax consequences.

Non-Qualified Extended contracts

You are purchasing an annuity contract as a part of a death benefit distribution that involves payments to be made over your life expectancy. Western & Southern Life will calculate and make these payments according to the payment option elected. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has not reviewed this contract and Western & Southern Life does not guarantee that the payment from the contract will qualify for the tax treatment being applied.

1. The payments must be substantially equal payments made over your life expectancy. Your payments will be taxed as amounts received as an annuity and the investment in the contract will be spread over the number of periodic payments made over your life expectancy.
2. Your first payment must be distributed to you on or before the first anniversary of the deceased contract owner's date of death.
3. You must have made your election to receive stretch payments of the death benefit within 60 days from the time the benefit was payable to you.
4. You must receive your annual amount each year.
5. No additional contribution can be made to this contract.
6. You have the option to surrender the contract or take a partial withdrawal at any time. However, if you surrender the contract or take a partial withdrawal, your payments will no longer be taxed as amounts received as an annuity; instead you will receive the gain first and be taxed first on all of the gain remaining in the contract.
7. You cannot transfer or assign the contract.
8. Any optional rider offered under a product is not available on your contract.

I understand that the annuity contract I am purchasing provides certain rights to me as owner and upon my death, to my named beneficiaries. I understand that the exercise of some of those rights may result in adverse tax consequences due to the tax law restrictions associated with this contract. I also understand that the contract has withdrawal charges and may also have a market value adjustment, which apply to a full surrender and to any partial withdrawal greater than the free withdrawal amount stated in the contract, even if the withdrawal is for the required distribution amount.

1.  - b. I am not subject to backup withholding because (i) I am exempt from backup withholding or (ii) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of failure to report all interest or dividends, or (iii) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
 - c. I am a US citizen. Western & Southern Life suggests that you consult with an attorney or tax advisor for proper tax advice.

Note: You must cross out item 3b of certification if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because of underreporting of interest or dividends on your tax returns.
