Income Payout Options³ (Continues on next page)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Payouts for life (single life; issue ages 0–85): Provides the highest income payout amount of any of the life options because payouts will continue only while the annuitant is alive. ➤ Payouts for two lives (joint and survivor; issue ages 0–85): Lifetime income for as long as one of two annuitants (often spouses) is alive. Payouts to the survivor can remain level or be reduced. A period certain may also be included. ➤ Payouts for life or for two lives with a period certain (Issue ages 0–85): Lifetime income with a guarantee that payouts will continue for at least a specified period. This ensures that, in the event of death, payouts will continue to a beneficiary until the end of the specified period. ➤ Payouts for life or for two lives with cash refund (Issue ages 0–85): Lifetime income with a money-back guarantee that at least the single premium will be returned, regardless of whether the annuitant is alive. If payouts before death are less than the premium paid, the beneficiary receives the difference in a lump-sum refund.

¹ Currently unavailable in NY. Not available with life only payouts, temporary life payouts and certain period payouts of less than 10 years.

² Income will continue for a period of time, specified by the owner, only while the annuitant is alive. Temporary life payouts provide no benefit on or after death of annuitant.

³ All options may not be available.

Income Payout Options³	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Payouts for life or for two lives with installment refund (Issue ages 0–85): Another lifetime income option with a money-back guarantee that at least the single premium will be returned, regardless of whether the annuitant is alive. If payouts before death are less than the premium paid, the beneficiary receives the payouts on the same installment schedule until the full premium is refunded. ➤ Payouts for a period certain (5–30 years; issue ages 0–85): A non-lifetime option where payouts will continue for a period of time (from 5 to 30 years) specified by the owner. Payouts continue until the end of the specified period, regardless of whether the annuitant is alive. ➤ Temporary life payouts (Issue ages 0–85): Income will continue for a period of time (from 5 to 30 years) specified by the owner, only while the annuitant is alive.
Increasing Payout Option (IPO)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Optional benefit provides an annually compounded guaranteed increase in the income payout amount. Increase options are 1%, 2%, 3%, 4% and 5%. ➤ Electing this benefit reduces the initial payout amount. ➤ IPO payment amounts increase annually and will at some point, depending on the payout elected and the annuitant’s longevity, exceed those received under an option without the IPO. ➤ If annuitant dies prior to life expectancy, a payee may receive less total income with an IPO than without one.
Commutation Benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ For potential liquidity needs, this provides a lump-sum payout of the present value of future certain payouts in specific instances. Options available for both qualified and non-qualified contracts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Living annuitant commutation of 10%–90% of the present value (available after first contract year) allows owner to cash out a percentage of all remaining payouts. • Deceased annuitant commutation (death benefit commutation) allows beneficiary to cash out the remaining certain payouts upon the death of the annuitant (single life) or the last-to-die joint annuitant (joint and survivor).
Opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Candidates may include people who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are entering retirement or are already retired. • Have resources (pension distributions, retirement accounts, brokerage accounts) that they want to convert into an income stream (surrender charges or penalties may apply). • Are concerned about outliving their income. • Value a guaranteed source of income in retirement. • Want the flexibility to select among various payout options. • Have other retirement resources invested for growth. • Want to provide income for a spouse or beneficiaries.

An immediate annuity is permanent. The owner has no access to the premium, which converts to a stream of income payouts. There is no cash value, no death benefit and the annuity can't be surrendered. The contract terms, such as payment amount and frequency, cannot be changed, unless commutation is available and elected. Your clients should not purchase an immediate annuity if you may need to access any of your premium for living expenses or other purposes.
