GENERAL INFORMATION

Fort Washington Investment Advisors, Inc. (“Fort Washington,” “us,” “our,” or “we”) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Western & Southern Investment Holdings, LLC and the primary investment arm of Western & Southern Financial Group, Inc. and its insurance affiliates. We are registered with the SEC pursuant to Section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Act”). We were incorporated in 1990 under the laws of the State of Ohio. Our principal place of business is located in Cincinnati, Ohio.

SERVICES

Fort Washington serves as the investment adviser for non-discretionary wrap model portfolios (the “UGMA Wrap Fee Program”) through its affiliate and solicitor, Fabric Technologies, Inc. dba Fabric by Gerber Life (“Fabric”). Fabric operates a website (<https://meetfabric.com>) and mobile application that provides access to, among other products and services, child investment accounts (each, an “Account”) under the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act (“UGMA”) (also known as the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act) as adopted in each state. More information about Fabric, including Fabric’s terms of service applicable to Accounts, is available at meetfabric.com/legal.

Accounts are owned by a parent or other custodian (the “Client”) for the benefit of a named child beneficiary. Funds in the Account must be used for the child. We presume the Client is carrying out her or his duties in accordance with law, and we have no duty or obligation whatsoever to monitor or ensure that the acts of the Client are conducted according to law or for the child’s benefit. We are not responsible to either the Client or the child for monitoring the age or eligibility of a minor for an Account, even though our records may include the minor’s date of birth, and we will not send any notices regarding the termination of the Account for such reasons to anyone except and unless explicitly required to do so by state law. It is the Client’s responsibility to properly distribute the funds in the Account, including upon the child’s death.

Through Fabric’s platform, Fort Washington offers non-discretionary management services based on the Client’s goals, objectives, and time horizon. Clients complete an online questionnaire that assists in the Client’s selection of the most appropriate model based on information outlined in the questionnaire. The Client decides whether to open an Account, and the Client chooses one of five model portfolios. Before making these decisions, you should evaluate and decide if other programs and investments might be more appropriate for your investment goals and needs.

Accounts can be invested in one of five model portfolios (each, a “Model Portfolio”). Below are general descriptions of each Model Portfolio. This is for presentation purposes only and is not exact measurement of security holdings; actual holdings will be different.

- Conservative - 20% equity / 80% fixed income securities
- Moderately conservative – 40% equity / 60% fixed income
- Moderate – 60% equity / 40% fixed income
- Moderately aggressive – 80% equity / 20% fixed income
- Aggressive – 100% equity / 0% fixed income

The Model Portfolios are constructed using the following asset classes. The specific classes included in each Model Portfolio will change over time as economic factors change.

- US Large Cap Equity
- US Small Cap Equity
- International Equity
- Fixed Income

The only securities available in the Model Portfolios are exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”). ETFs sponsored by Fort Washington’s affiliates or sub-advised by Fort Washington will not be used in the Model Portfolios.

FEES

Clients pay a monthly fee in advance at a rate of $3.00 per month for a single Account or $5.00 per month for more than one Account (the “Monthly Fee”). For administrative convenience, the Monthly Fee may be collected by Fabric on Fort Washington’s behalf. Clients are not required to maintain a minimum account balance, however $20 is required to open an account.

All brokerage commissions, stock transfer fees, and other similar charges incurred in connection with transactions for the Account will be paid out of the Monthly Fee and not the assets of the Account. In addition, all custodial fees will also be paid out of the Monthly Fee and not the assets of the Account. The Monthly Fee paid is separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by ETFs in which we may invest client assets. These fees and expenses are described in each ETFs' prospectus. These fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses, and a possible distribution fee. If the ETF also imposes sales charges, a client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge.

COMPENSATION

Neither Fort Washington nor any representatives of Fort Washington receive any additional compensation for the participation of Clients in the UGMA Wrap Fee Program. However, the compensation received may be more than what would have been received if Clients paid separately for brokerage and other services.

Fort Washington will not charge a performance fee for Accounts.

Fort Washington provides advisory services to wrap fee programs, as well as, advisory services to individual clients in connection with third-party separately managed account (“SMA”) programs. Fort Washington provides the same advisory services under both wrap fee and third-party SMA programs as we provide to our other separate account clients, except that Fort Washington generally does not communicate directly with an advisory client without the participation of the wrap fee sponsor/solicitor or SMA-sponsoring firm. Rather, clients choose our services with the assistance of the sponsor/solicitor. The client's selection generally is based on the compatibility of our investment services and strategies with the client's investment objectives.

ITEM 5 – ACCOUNT REQUIREMENTS AND TYPES OF CLIENTS

Fort Washington provides non-discretionary model investment advisory services to natural persons who are (i) legal U.S. residents, and (ii) pass identify verification protocols. The child beneficiary of each UGMA Account must also be a U.S. resident with a valid social security number and must be under the age of 15 at the time the Account is opened on the child’s behalf. As described in Item 4, there is no minimum account size. However, $20 is needed to open an Account. Fort Washington’s UGMA Wrap Fee Program is restricted to non-discretionary UGMA investment advisory accounts solicited and facilitated by Fabric.

ITEM 6 – PORTFOLIO MANAGER SELECTION AND EVALUATION

Fort Washington personnel are responsible for establishing, management, and oversight of the Accounts. Fort Washington provides portfolio management services for the Accounts via an online interface through Fabric. Fort Washington has designed model portfolios to be executed in an automated fashion, in lieu of traditional in-person investment advice. You choose the Model Portfolio based on your time horizon, and investment objectives, among other factors. The aforementioned investment objective items are documented at the opening of each client account.

Through this arrangement, Fort Washington will request authority to execute transactions based on the Model Portfolio selected by the Client. If Fort Washington updates the Model Portfolio, the Client will be notified in advance and offered an opportunity to change to another Model Portfolio. Clients with Accounts participating in the UGMA Wrap Fee Program will not pay additional transaction fees; as outlined in Item 4, Fort Washington will charge Clients one fee and pay all transaction fees using the collected advisory fee. Certain other fees such as charges imposed directly by ETFs will be paid separately by the Client, as described in Item 4.

Personnel knowledgeable about the management of the Account are available for Client consultation upon reasonable request.

Fort Washington will not select any third-party portfolio managers and will be the sole portfolio manager for the management of the UGMA Wrap Fee Program. Fort Washington reviews the performance of the Model Portfolios and underlying ETFs quarterly and will make adjustments as needed to meet our fiduciary responsibilities.

Only ETFs that have been vetted and approved by Fort Washington's Due Diligence Committee ("Committee") are available for Model Portfolios for the Accounts. The Committee, comprised of senior leadership across Fort Washington, conducts a rigorous evaluation process to ensure each investment is in line with our Client's objectives and goals. Each model is monitored to evaluate its continued appropriateness based on the Model Portfolio's objective.

Fort Washington constructs various asset allocation options in the form of different Model Portfolios for the UGMA Wrap Fee Program to accommodate Client investment objectives, time horizons, and other factors. Fort Washington is responsible for determining the particular asset classes and asset allocations that are appropriate for the Model Portfolios. Fort Washington will periodically review the asset allocations of each Model Portfolio and may recommend adjustments to funds or weightings as necessary. These changes may occur due to shifting market dynamics or other reasons and will be implemented by Fort Washington on behalf of the Client to adhere to the Client's selected Model Portfolio, subject to the Client's negative consent (i.e. the Client will be told in advance of the change and given the opportunity to change Model Portfolios).

Investing in securities involves risk of loss that Clients should be prepared to bear, including loss of the entire amount invested by the Client. Fort Washington cannot guarantee any level of performance or that any Client will avoid losses in his or her Account. Investments in the Account are subject to various market, volatility, liquidity, asset and sector specific risks, and other risks inherent in investing. There is no assurance that Fort Washington will achieve the Client's investment objective or produce intended results.

Voting Client Securities

Fort Washington does not have the authority to vote Client securities for the Accounts. Clients are responsible for voting proxies on behalf of their Accounts.

Clients are responsible for instructing their custodian to forward copies of all proxies and shareholder communications to the Client.

Fort Washington will neither advise nor act on behalf of the Client in legal proceedings involving companies whose securities are held in the Client's Account(s) including, but not limited to, the filing of "Proofs of Claim" in class action settlements. If desired, Clients may direct us or their custodian, in writing, to transmit copies of class action notices to the Client or a third party. Upon such direction, we will make every reasonable effort to forward such notices in a timely manner.

ITEM 7 – CLIENT INFORMATION PROVIDED TO PORTFOLIO MANAGER

Client information will be provided to Fort Washington from Fabric as required to open an Account within the UGMA Wrap Fee Program. This information includes the Client's investment time horizon, net worth, investment goals, and other personal information. This information will be used by the Client to determine the appropriate Model Portfolio. As circumstances change for the Client, there will be the opportunity to change the selected Model Portfolio to better align with updated investment objectives.

To facilitate the opening of the Account, the information above is provided to the Client's custodian, Apex Clearing Corporation, a registered broker-dealer and member FINRA/SIPC ("Apex"). Account funding and gifting is facilitated using the Dwolla, Inc. ("Dwolla") platform and technology. Important information about Apex and Dwolla are available on Fabric's Legal webpage. Apex and Dwolla are not affiliated with Fabric or Fort Washington.

It will be the Client's responsibility to advise Fort Washington of any changes or modifications to the Client's selected Model Portfolio, as well as any specific investment restrictions applicable thereto and to give Fort Washington prompt written notice if Client deems any investments within the Model Portfolio or made for the Account to be in violation of such objectives or restrictions. Unless Client notifies us in writing of specific restrictions, the investment made on behalf of the Account shall be deemed not to be restricted by virtue of the terms of any other contract or instrument purporting to bind Client or Fort Washington.

ITEM 8 – CLIENT CONTACT WITH PORTFOLIO MANAGERS

The UGMA Wrap Fee Program is designed to be digital-first, meaning Clients will be able to handle their Account servicing needs, including viewing balances, adjusting investment objectives, updating personal information, and depositing and withdrawing funds, all through the Fabric mobile application or website. Clients are encouraged to contact Fabric directly via email should they have questions or need assistance with administrative or platform-specific questions. Fabric will coordinate with Fort Washington on any questions or needs associated with investment advice. However, there are no restrictions on a Client's ability to contact and consult with Fort Washington in connection with the UGMA Wrap Fee Program.

Gifts in excess of $100, whether individual or in aggregate must be pre-cleared and pre-approved by the President & CEO and the Compliance department. Outside Business Activities

Any outside business activity involving a non-affiliated company must be pre-approved.

Our Code of Ethics is designed to assure that the personal securities transactions, activities, and interests of our employees will not interfere with (i) making decisions in the best interest of advisory clients, and (ii) implementing such decisions while, at the same time, allowing employees to invest for their own accounts.

Our firm and/or individuals associated with our firm have the ability to buy or sell for their personal accounts securities identical to or different from those recommended to our clients. In addition, a certain security or securities may also be recommended to a client even when a related person has an interest or position in the same security or securities.

As these situations represent actual or potential conflicts of interest to our clients, we have established the following policies and procedures for implementing our firm's Code of Ethics. This ensures our firm complies with its regulatory obligations and provides our clients and potential clients with full and fair disclosure of such conflicts of interest:

- No director, officer, or employee of our firm will put his or her own interest above the interest of an advisory client
