Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who owns an account or others who may be authorized to act on the account. What this means for you: By adding your name to this existing account, we require your full name, permanent street address, government identification number and date of birth that will allow us to identify you. If we do not receive these required pieces of information, there may be a delay in processing your account change. If we are unable to immediately verify your identify, the Fund(s) may restrict further investment until your identity is verified. However, if we are unable to verify your identify, the Fund(s) reserves the right to revert your account to its former registration/ownership.
