

Daniel W. Harris

Senior Vice President and Chief Actuary
Western & Southern Financial Group

Daniel W. Harris is senior vice president and chief actuary for Western & Southern Financial Group, a diversified family of financial services companies based in Cincinnati. A Fortune 500 company, Western & Southern is one of the strongest life insurance groups in the world.

As chief actuary, Harris oversees actuarial work for the company's insurance subsidiaries, including product pricing, valuation and financial reporting, assumption development and in force management, experience studies and predictive analytics, and reinsurance. He joined member company Columbus Life Insurance in 1988 as an actuarial analyst and was promoted to multiple positions during his career, most recently to chief actuary in 2014.

Harris has been involved with numerous professional, civic and community organizations. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, a member of the American Academy of Actuaries and a member of the LOMA Chief Actuary Committee. He is a past member of the American Council of Life Insurers Actuarial Committee, past secretary and treasurer of the Society of Actuaries Financial Reporting Section Council and past chairman of the Western & Southern campaign for the United Way of Greater Cincinnati.

Harris holds a bachelor of arts in psychology from Mount Vernon Nazarene University and a master of arts in education from The Ohio State University. He and his wife, Melinda, reside in Cincinnati.